This month, Grumpy Bob from Zoinks! and his label brings y'all a couple of poppy punky gems. Dontcha goof up and pass on these, now, these bands are happening!!!

THE INVALIDS

Wiseguys

THE INVALIDS — "Wiseguys" 7"

SECOND GUESS RECORDS SG-04 $2.00 now available

Some might argue that this band sounds more like SCREECHING WEASEL than RIVERDALES do. Santa Rosa's INVALIDS lay on the Weasel tone nice and heavy. Catchy, buzzing punk rock at its finest! Best of all, another single is being released almost simultaneously on that fancy, well funded Lookout! Records label that you know and sell like crazy. That means that the guitars won't be the only thing buzzing around THE INVALIDS. The records will be zippin' out the door.

Lessee, KID DYNAMO are from Santa Rosa. GROUND ROUND are from Santa Rosa. SIREN are from Santa Rosa. Do you see a hot scene or what???

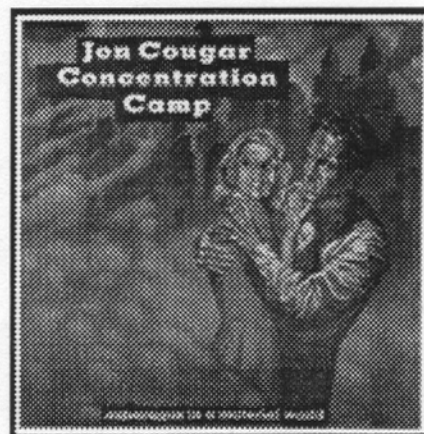

JON COUGAR CONCENTRATION CAMP —

"Asparagus in a Material World" 7"

SECOND GUESS RECORDS SG-05 $2.00 now available

Not just another bunch of pretty faces with a silly band name, JCCC have already been around the block more times than a 50 year old mailman. These Santee, CA kiddies have christened several kickin' pieces of killer seven inch wax, stole the show on the Viva La Vinyl comp LP, and caused twenty-five buildings to collapse due to uncontrollable outbreaks of mass pogomania at live gigs...

JCCC can write the hooks and deliver 'em with enough of a sneer to keep the grumpiest spikehair happy. That's what punk rock is all about. More fun than a fresh 24 ounce jar full of kosher dills. Really.

SCHLEPROCK — Hide and Seek CD

LAST RESORT RECORDS LR-04 $6.75 available July 15

Back in print at long last, this is the debut full-length from a sensational Los Angeles five-piece, now tearing up the world on Dr. Strange Records. A long interview ran in the July issue of Maximum Rockroll—in other words, it's time to get stocked up on SCHLEPROCK if your store isn't already.

LAST
RECORDS

This sounds like it might have been put out by Epitaph or Fat Wreck Chords, the same sort of SoCal melodic hardcore, whatever you want to call it... The stuff sells like hotcakes, that's the bottom line.

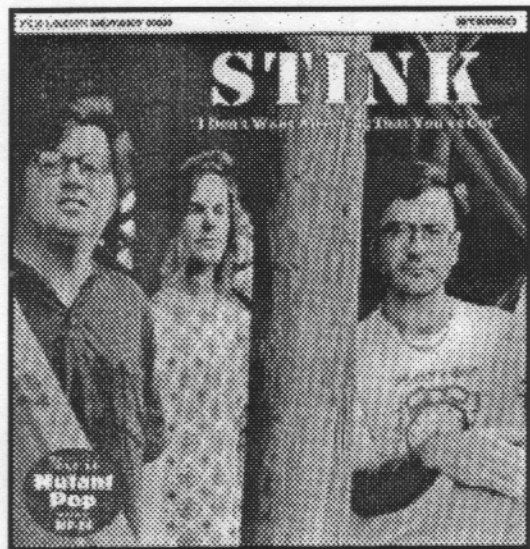

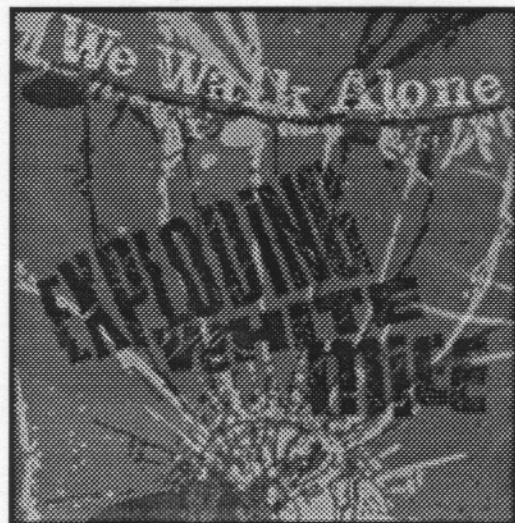

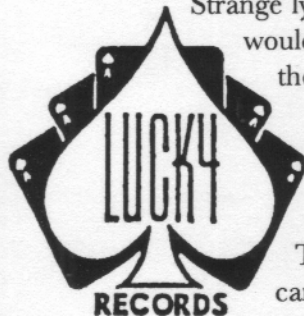

There's also a SCHLEPROCK EP available from 1000FL. When you add that to the gob of stuff you can get from Mordam, you'll be there.

EXPLODING WHITE MICE— We Walk Alone CD
LUCKY RECORDS LK-12 $7.25 now available

It's difficult to imagine, but the second American full length by Australia's EXPLODING WHITE MICE is even better than the first. True fact. Simply amazing Ramones-influenced guitar pop-punk, terrific stuff in the vein of Screaming Weasel and The Queers. This album absolutely KILLS, its hooks are so infectious that the Center for Disease Control is said to be sending a team of specialists out from Atlanta to take a look at the matter this weekend.

"We're so happy to be living in the U.S.A.," The Mice sing. Hmmm. Strange lyric for an Australian band. In a just world the song would be a Top 10 radio smash and they would be living in the U.S.A. So it goes.

Tell ya what: instead of forking up eleven bucks or whatever on the latest chunk of prefabricated corporate crap, take a chance on this one. The Mice rule and it's just a matter of time before The Mice roll. There is no way a band this good can miss, and you can quote me on that.

STINK— "I Don't Want Anything That You've Got" 7"
MUTANT POP RECORDS MP-04 $2.00 now available

The fourth stage of Mutant Pop's ongoing effort to take over the craniums of punk rock record collectors around the world is the release of this wonderful single by STINK, an intense and intelligent band from Seattle, Washington. This band belts out the punk just like the classic Irish '77 band STIFF LITTLE FINGERS—smart and passionate. This stuff ain't grunge, dontcha go calling them that or Ken Stink will poke you in the eyeballs with his stiff little fingers...

As with all Mutant Pop releases, this comes in the patented and trademarked M-Pop Retro Sleeve with a first pressing on gorgeous blue vinyl that will hop, skip, and jump out of the bins and into your customers' hands.

If you're not yet a trooper in the Mutant Pop retail army yet, enlist now!

THE AUTOMATICS— "All the Kids Just Wanna Dance" 7"
MUTANT POP RECORDS MP-05 $2.00 Available July 10

Ha, ha, Larry, Chris, and Patrick at Lookout! Records have missed another classic pop-punk band. Another Mutant Pop scoop of its spiritual fathers... That makes 3 for those of you keeping score at home...

Lemme tell you about Portland, Oregon's THE AUTOMATICS in one short and incredibly descriptive sentence: "THE AUTOMATICS are a head-on car crash between THE QUEERS and THE HI-FIVES." That's it, right on the mark...

Ya with me? Amazing poppy songwriting with attitude and an edge, played on stage by hyperactive goofs that like to wear suits... Really, now, what other punk band in the universe has two members named Jesse? Think about it.

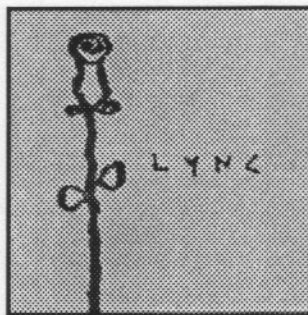

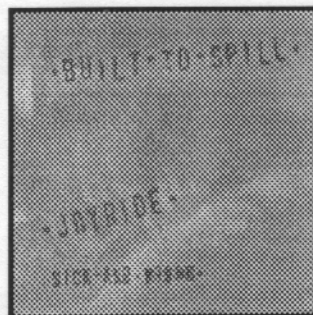

These guys are gonna take over the world some day. Be there or be square. Fab pink vinyl (opaque bubblegum or clear fuschia), too!

New 1000 Flowers Affiliated Label!

Reality Control? is a small, incredibly DIY outfit out of Carpinteria, California. The label has a variety of sounds, raging from the ripping political hardcore of Agent 94 to the groovy funky out rave up of Young Pioneers to the straight up ska of Sparker.

Unifying themes: a commitment to content rather than slick packaging, an emphasis on DIY ethics over shifting units, and a dedication to vinyl rather than plastic covered tinfoil.
