A 3 page interview with UNDERHAND is forthcoming in MAXIMUM ROCKNROLL no. 146 (June 26)

UNDERHAND is a sensational pop-punk band from Eureka, California, a small town on the North Coast. The town has garnered some attention of late in the fiction and prose of Larry Livermore, honcho of Lookout! Records. Well, the joke's on Larry, 'cause he missed the best band in his favorite town. And I'm gonna rub it in every time I see him. Ha ha ha.

(Actually, come to think of it I'm probably just breaking in the band for him, and he'll end up with the debut full length and will sell 20,000,000 copies and laugh really cruelly at me for taunting him. So maybe I'll just shut up...)

Underhand rocks. Mutant Pop rocks. MRR rocks. This record rocks.
They're touring. I'm hyping. The kids are reading.
You should be stocking. You will be selling. Blah blah blah.

hype!
