

Mutant Pop Records

NEW!

carter peace mission Disco Stu Likes Disco Music

After languishing a year in Out Of Printsville, the red-hot debut full-length from San Diego pop-punk wizards CARTER PEACE MISSION is back in print, this time on MUTANT POP! This young outfit kicks a sizeable amount of boo-tay, ripping out hit after hit! Polished poppy punk in the vein of SICKO, ZOINKS!, or BLINK 182—no SoCal wank, big pop taste. Seventeen smashes, including live show faves like “Spacedog,” “Passaround,” and “Mallory,” you can’t miss with tuneage as fine as that! This reissue of the hot-selling 1996 local album features a new beefy and beautiful 16 page booklet, complete with song lyrics, band photos, and other cool stuff—quality packaging in the Mutant Pop tradition. Yes, it’s a great album! Yes, it’s gonna sell! No, not every distributor on the planet is gonna be able to carry the damned thing, so you’ve got a swell chance to shift some of the proverbial units! CD FORMAT—SIX DOLLARS.

THE KLOPECS

SELF-TITLED EP

NEW!

They’re young, they’re energetic, they rock. They aren’t THE KLOPEKS from Illinois, they’re THE KLOPECS from Shelbina, Missouri, and this is their first record! Four killer cuts recorded at Sonic Iguana Studios in Lafayette, Indiana. Teenage angst may not have paid off well, but it certainly did result in a handful of rocking pop punk hits! Catchiness and attitude have been blended like grizzled vets. A hate song, a paean to a pop cultural icon—megahooks here, cool-o harmonies there. All the kids just wanna dance, dammit, so get these green opaque vinyl slabs into the retail pipeline or I’ll do it myself. 7” VINYL FORMAT—$1.90

MP-36 DARLINGTON “Bowling Betty” EP $1.90

They’ve got two albums on the street, their Girltrovery is one of the top pop-punk releases of 1998 and has been selling like fifty cent Corona on a hot August day to the fans of the genre. Infectious, bubbly melodies beneath piles of buzzing guitars done right, in the SCREECHING WEASEL way. This brand new platter from Mutant Pop Records will win the band yet another wave of fawning fans, three jolts of three chord poppy punk excitement. All cuts are non-album, all cuts rock. Purple vinyl for the first 500 copies, be quick! (MP singles on color totally fly at retail!!!) And be sure to track down DARLINGTON’s third full-length, Mess You Up, out now on Melted Records!

MP-30 V/A “No Band Photo, Vol. 1” DOUBLE EP $3.50

Compilation CDs suck, you know it and I know it. Every dingus in the country with $1500 in the bank is trying to make a quick score and you’re stuck helping Those Guys make it happen... Well, here’s an odor-free alternative to greaseballs on the make... Four great up-and-comers turn in terrific recordings on this first Mutant Pop DOUBLE EP. The crew includes MP sockhop bubblepunk faves THE PROMS, underground heavy hitters SPODIE, harmony laced cuts from Michigan sensations RUTH’S HAT, and the first ever release from THE FRATELLI’S. Four distinctive pop-punk tastes in one sleeve. First 500 are on blue vinyl. Nine fab originals!!!
